

Empower Your Presence – Dressing To Own The Room

Participants will leave with a deeper understanding of how their character and clothing choices can empower them and enhance their presence. They would gain practical knowledge on selecting attire and behavior that aligns with their personal style and the image they wish to project, enabling them to "own the room" with confidence and authenticity.